What is a Motivational Mystery Shopping?

Motivational MSH is an instrument for the stimulation of employees for proposing additional services and/or products, sales of particular products.

Having an experience in more than 50 unique cases, we provide an unparalleled system of involving your employees in a “game” and motivating them to make additional offers to every single new customer (not every 10).

Mechanics of the Motivational MSH:

- Mystery Shopper visits the location as an ordinary customer and evaluates the quality of the service
- Employee proposes the product/service during the consultation
- Mystery Shopper agrees for the purchase
- Mystery Shopper reveals himself and congratulates the employee on the well performed duties and gives him/her «A Mystery Shopper Gift»
(Gift that was agreed upon earlier)
- Possible Option: in case of unsatisfactory performance by the employee, Mystery Shopper reveals himself and gives him a «postcard with the gift information and options for achieving it.
